Costa del Sol, Mijas Pueblo

This stunning house is located on a quiet street in the heart of Mijas Pueblo, within walking distance of everything the village has to offer. From the property you can enjoy breathtaking views of both the sea and the mountains.

The home offers exceptional privacy, featuring several balconies, roof terraces and a private garden/patio. The property retains its classic Andalusian charm with many original features preserved, while also benefiting from careful maintenance and renovations over the years.
On the entrance level, you'll find spacious social areas with a bright lounge and a rustic-style kitchen, where natural light floods in through the large windows. This floor has direct access to the charming private patio.

A marble staircase leads to the first floor, which originally hosted four bedrooms and can easily be restored to that layout if desired. Today, it comprises a large master bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, a guest room currently used as an office, and a library that can be converted back into two bedrooms. A second bathroom is also located on this floor.

Continuing up to the top floor, you will find two terraces with spectacular panoramic views — the perfect place for a jacuzzi, lounge area or simply to enjoy the tranquility. This level also offers a versatile space that can accommodate a large bed or function as a workspace with a view.

On street level, the property includes a spacious garage with room for two cars, as well as an additional room ideal for a gym, wine cellar or extra storage.

This classic beauty is truly a must-see — it will not disappoint.
