Costa del Sol, Estepona

Located within one of the New Golden Mile's most exclusive beachfront communities, this ground-floor apartment in Cabo Bermejo offers a relaxed coastal lifestyle in a well-regarded seafront setting between Estepona and Marbella.

The property has been fully refurbished, with a reworked layout that enhances flow and natural light throughout. It features three bedrooms and three bathrooms, with the main living areas designed around a generous open space that connects directly to the private terrace and communal gardens.

The living room is bright and well-proportioned, with a calm interior palette that complements the natural surroundings. The kitchen is custom-designed with quality finishes and integrated appliances, forming a practical yet discreet part of the living space.

The main bedroom includes a private bathroom and dressing area, while the additional bedrooms are ideal for guests or flexible use. Throughout, careful attention to materials and detailing creates a consistent sense of quality.

Cabo Bermejo is known for its resort-style setting, offering direct beach access, landscaped tropical gardens, two pool areas with water features, a gym, and wellness facilities. The development benefits from 24-hour security and is within easy walking distance of several beachfront restaurants and nearby five-star hotels.
