Costa del Sol, Manilva

Set within a peaceful residential setting in Hacienda Guadalupe, this three-bedroom house offers the opportunity to enjoy a modern Mediterranean lifestyle while adding the final personal touches to the home.

The principal renovation works are almost complete, leaving only minor finishing details, while the generous plot provides considerable scope to shape the outdoor spaces around your lifestyle. There is room to create landscaped gardens and a private swimming pool, providing the foundations for an inviting outdoor entertaining area.

Sea and mountain views add to the sense of space, while the home combines privacy with convenient access to beaches, golf, restaurants and everyday amenities. With approximately 150 m² of living space, a garage and a 411 m² plot, this is particularly appealing for buyers who want a renovated home without giving up the opportunity to personalise its final details.

We love the opportunity this villa offers to combine an almost-completed renovation with outdoor spaces that can still be designed entirely around the new owner's lifestyle. The sea and mountain views, generous plot and potential for a private pool make it particularly appealing for relaxed Mediterranean living.
